

3 on 3 Basketball Rules

-Teams consist of 3 players with one sub.

-Faculty, Staff, and spouses of Facstaff CAN participate. No alumni or individuals from other schools can play

-There will be a coin toss, Rock/Paper/Scissors or any other justifiable alternative to figure out who is going to get the ball first.

-The games will be played half court to 12, win by 2.

-The ball changes possession each time, there is no straits or makes it take it.

-If the opposite team shoots the ball and it does not go in and the other team receives the rebound they must take the ball back to past the three-point line but they do not have to pass the ball back in.

-Whenever there is a foul called the ball will be given to the opposite team. There are also no free throws.

-Either team can call a foul. There will be no rule on making the offense call it or the defense. Whoever feels like they either got fouled or did the fouling will be free to call the foul. No team members or spectators can make the call if they were not either the fouler or foulee.

-Scoreboards will be present at each game but it is up to both teams to figure out a representative to keep score whilst the game is being played

Officials will NOT be present for any game thus each team will be governing their own games. Attention to etiquette, fair play, and ultimate adherence to the aforementioned policies and overall rules of the game of basketball must be upheld by all participants at all times.
