On separate sheets of paper, please respond to the following:

1. Submit a list of high school, community, and church involvement along with leadership roles you have had.
2. Respond to the following:
 - Introduce yourself by highlighting one or two significant aspects of your life story which you believe have shaped who you are today.
 - Discuss why you believe it's important to celebrate each other's ethnic heritage and diversity.
 - Tell us about a lesson you have learned about leadership through your high school/community/church experiences. Why do you believe that lesson is valuable?
 - As a potential Massey Scholarship recipient, what knowledge, skills, and attributes will you utilize to engage our community in dialog around racial justice and authentic cultural diversity issues?
 - Anderson University strives to graduate students with a global perspective who are interculturally competent. What does this mean to you? What would happen in your tenure as a student to ensure that we have accomplished that with you?
3. Include two letters of recommendation from people who can speak to the following:
 - Academic Achievement
 - Christian Commitment
 - Leadership Qualities
 - Church and/or Community Involvement

(These may be included with the rest of your application or mailed separately.)
