

5/17-19/09 AUEA (On the Road to Uganda)

Wow... I have a lot of ground to cover. I guess I'll start with the mountain in Tanzania. That experience with the hut and 5 mile hike to church was something that I will never forget. Every time I feel like I can't go farther God shows or gives me something beautiful to hold on to the really good rice when we were so hungry or the rain and rainbow when we got down the mountain. Simply beautiful. Our group has really been stretched but have grown together a lot through the tough times like the immense amount of goat or amount of the chai. Haha... great times. We are flying to Uganda right now and I am so excited. Our group is very dynamic and have many different ideas about their expectations for the coming week. What I think is great is the passion all of us have to make a difference... For us to become more of who we are in Christ. We are currently in the middle of clouds... the sun is shining right to make the view incredible. We have seen so many views this past week just like right now. I thank God for letting me see his creation.
