Tour itineraries, departure and/or return dates, departure cities, hotel, and other arrangements are subject to change or alteration by the airlines and/or Anderson University Tri-S.

Baggage

Baggage is at "owner's own risk" and responsibility throughout the travel.

Although the airlines may have more generous baggage allowances, ours are as follows:

Each participant is entitled to one suitcase and one carry-on bag.

The carry-on bag must fit in the overhead bin or under the seat in front of you. Baggage space is limited, especially in vans and motor coaches.

Baggage loss or damage sustained while in the custody of an airline, hotel, bus company, transfer company, or Anderson University vehicle, is not the responsibility of Anderson University Tri-S

Documentation

A valid passport and, in some cases, a visa may be required.

Each person is responsible for obtaining a passport, visa, and other entry documents at their own expense and well in advance of departure.

Insurance

Anderson University requires that all participants be covered by a comprehensive health and accident insurance policy including medical evacuation and repatriation. Please contact the Tri-S Office for insurance options that can be purchased through our office.

Baggage insurance to protect against loss or damage is also available through the Tri-S Office.

Since most airline tickets are non-refundable, you may want to purchase trip cancellation insurance to cover this risk.
