

Terry and Kimmi McCardwell Endowed Scholarship Fund

This fund shall be named the Terry and Kimmi McCardwell Endowed Scholarship Fund.

It is the intention of the Primary Donor that their gift will be held and invested into perpetuity in the endowment of Anderson University and the annual distribution percentage approved by the Board of Trustees will be available for expenditure for the purposes stated herein. Any additional contributions shall also be similarly held in perpetuity unless expressly stated otherwise by the donor.

Terry and Kimmi McCardwell are graduates of the Anderson University Falls School of Business, the Indiana University MBA Program and have passed the Certified Public Accountant designation. Terry is the owner of GDI Construction Corporation and has been involved in several building projects on the AU campus including the recently completed Fair Commons, York Residences for School of Theology students and the Flagship Education Center. Kimmi served some 20 years as Business Manager for Sandi Patty and now works with McCardwell, Inc. a Real Estate Investment/Development Company. The McCardwells family's belief in Anderson University and her mission have led them to establish this scholarship fund as a way of helping students attend Anderson University.
