

MYERS AUTOWORLD WOMEN OF ACHIEVEMENT AWARD Scholarship Guidelines

Purpose – The purpose of the Myers Autoworld Women Of achievement Award is to encourage women to pursue the highest levels of leadership and character in careers in business by recognizing and rewarding the academic and service accomplishments of women enrolled in the Falls School of Business at Anderson University who are graduates of Madison County high schools.

Amount of the Award – Myers Autoworld will provide a substantial monetary award to one female student at the Falls School of Business for the 2009-10 academic year.

Eligibility for Award – All full-time female undergraduate students enrolled in any major offered through the Falls School of Business who have attained at least Junior status and who graduated from a high school in Madison County, Indiana, will be eligible to be considered for the award.

Criteria for Selection – An appointed FSB committee will select the recipient of the award. To be eligible to receive the award, a student shall submit an essay that sets out the student's philosophy of the importance to society of leadership and character in the business world. In making its selection, the committee shall consider the following factors in addition to the content of the essay:

- Academic achievement of the student. While this award is not necessarily intended to recognize the student who has the most outstanding academic record, it is expected that a student appropriately committed to preparation for a career in business will demonstrate high achievement in the classroom.
- Leadership. The student should have a record of leadership within the department, the university, and the community.
- Character. The student should demonstrate high standards of personal integrity.
- Service. The student should have a record of regular and enthusiastic involvement in service activities.

Timing of the Award – The recipient for the 2009-10 academic year will be selected no later than November 1, 2009.

Presentation of Award – The student chosen to receive the award must attend the Madison County ATHENA Gala dinner meeting for the formal presentation of the award.
