Find Out More

The mission of Anderson University is to educate for a life of faith and service in the church and society. AU strives to live out the mission through intentional service-learning experiences and being a faith-oriented teaching community that values servant leadership, generosity, excellence, responsibility, and integrity.

We encourage students to connect with faculty who are distinguished in their respective fields of study. Students can explore who they are and what they believe through discussion, service, and research. AU is a close-knit community that strives to prepare students for successful careers while promoting well-rounded spiritual, social, and personal living.
