

High School Completion Status

2019-2020

Your FAFSA was selected for review in a process called "verification." Federal law requires that Anderson University confirm the student's high school completion status. No further action can be taken on your request for financial aid including all federal, state, or need-based university funds until you submit the required information and complete this process.

A. Student Information (please print)

Student Name: _____ Student ID#: _____
Address: _____ Telephone Number: _____
City: _____ State: _____ Zip Code: _____

B. High School Completion Status

Instructions: Complete and return this form with a copy of one of the following documents that indicate your high school completion status when you will begin college in 2019-2020

- A copy of the student's high school diploma.
- A copy of the student's final official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was awarded.
- A copy of the student's General Educational Development (GED) certificate or GED transcript.
- An academic transcript that indicates the student successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor's degree.
- If State law requires a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copy of that credential.
- If State law does not require a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a transcript or the equivalent, signed by the student's parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses the student completed and documents the successful completion of a secondary school education in a homeschool setting.

If the student is unable to obtain the documentation listed above, he or she must contact the Office of Student Financial Services.

C. Certifications and Signatures

Each person signing below certifies that all of the information reported is complete and accurate. The student must sign and date. Also, one parent must sign and date if the student is a dependent student who reported the parent's information on the FAFSA.

WARNING: If you purposely give false or misleading information you may be fined, be sentenced to jail, or both.
