Financial aid eligibility for the 2017-2018 academic year is calculated based on the information you provided on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). The income and asset information that you submitted was evaluated by a formula called Federal Methodology as set by Congress. This formula assumes that 2015 income is a good predictor of the family's financial strength during the student's 2017-2018 enrollment. Based on this assumption, financial aid eligibility is determined using 2015 tax return information.

Anderson University recognizes that many families have changes in income or family situations that cannot be reflected in the 2015 tax return data. Therefore, it is possible for students to appeal their financial aid eligibility if they have unique financial circumstances.

A Request for Professional Judgement may be filed if you have extenuating circumstances, which you believe warrant a re-evaluation of your financial aid.

Circumstances may include, but are not limited to:

- Loss or change of employment
- Loss or change in amount of child support, Social Security, or other benefits
- Divorce or separation of parents or spouse
- Death of parent(s) or spouse
- Unusual medical expenses (not covered by insurance)
- One-time taxable income used for life changing events (e.g. IRA, pension distribution, back-year Social Security payments)
- Retirement of parent(s)

Circumstances that are NOT considered as extenuating include, but are not limited to:

- Standard living expenses (e.g. utilities, children's allowances, tuition for elementary/secondary/private education, etc.)
- Car payments
- Credit card or other personal debts
- Vacation expenses
- Reductions in overtime pay
- Mortgage payments
- All other discretionary expenses

All Requests for Professional Judgement require Tax Return Transcripts for student and parent (if student is dependent) along with W-2's and/or 1099's used to complete the tax return. You may obtain a tax return transcript by going online to www.irs.gov or you can call the IRS at 1-800-908-9946 and follow the prompts to request a Tax Transcript for 2015.

Please allow 3 to 4 weeks processing time from the time all documentation has been submitted. Notification of the decision by Student Financial Services will be sent to your AU e-mail address. All decisions made by Student Financial Services concerning special circumstances are final. If you have questions, please contact us at sfs@anderson.edu.
